

WARSZTAT/ WORKSHOP

The Approach of an Integrative Psychotherapy (Psychodynamic and Behavioral-Cognitive Orientation) and the Treatment of Work-Related Conflicts in a Group Therapy

Leader - Dr Lothar Schattenburg

The Approach of an Integrative Psychotherapy and the Treatment of Work Related Conflicts in a Group Therapy at the Psychosomatic Institute in Warsaw (Director: Prof. B. Wasilewski) from May 9-th to 11 May 2014 Chief Psychologist at the Psychosomatic Clinic (97616 Bad Neustadt, Germany) since 2002, Ph.D. at the University of Fribourg (Switzerland) in Clinical Psychology. Supervisor in Behavioral and Psychodynamic Psychotherapy at several Institutes in Germany. Authorized to lead Behavioral Self-Experience. Special Training in Transference Focused Psychotherapy TFP (Fellow at the PDI, N.Y., Director: Prof. Kernberg). Training in Group Therapy. Lectures/Workshops at the University in Bamberg and Cracow and at Institutes in Vienna and Munich. Translator of Meichenbaum and Turk into German. Former Assistant to the Editor of a Scientific Journal. Membership in several National and international Scientific Societies. Organization of a Scientific Meeting concerning Group Therapy. Psychotherapeutic Orientation: Behavioral, Psychodynamic and Hypno-therapy. Over 80 Scientific Publications concerning: Stress, Comparison between East and West, Attribution theory, Integration of Behavioral and Psychodynamic Therapy (bilingual approach), Group Therapy, Psychosomatic Anthropology, Body Therapy and the Application of Psychotherapy with Musicians.

If you have questions concerning the workshop please contact me: L.Schattenburg@t-online.de

Time: 9.00-17.00